Christmas is an annual festival commemorating the birth of Jesus Christ observed primarily on December 25 as a religious and cultural celebration ,it is not just a time for festivity and merry making it is more than that, it is a time for contemplation of eternal things Christmas is the spirit of giving without a thought of getting.

The host Ms.Akhila and Ms.Tana began the Christmas celebration Ms. Vaishnavi welcomed Respected principal ma'am, professors and students with a heartwarming speech on the occasion .The day began with morning assembly , morning prayer by choir group and motivational video on thought of joy of sharing . Skit on birth of Jesus Christ including carol singing was presented by student teachers. The paper reading on Christmas was done by Ms.Saboora and Ms.Yasmin in which they spoke about the significance of Christmas festival. Then we had skits on parables of Jesus "the parable of sower"(RBK school group), "the parable of lost son" (Royal girl's high school group), "the parable of good Samaritan"(S.V.P.V school group), "the parable of adultery women"(Abhinav college group), "the parable of tax collector"(Santhome school group )all these skits gave us the message of how to live as faithful. Followed by joy of sharing in which we had mesmerizing carol singing ,group photo and secret santa gift distribution with the hands of our jolly Santa Claus. Lastly, principal ma'am addressed the class and gave the blessings of Christmas to all of us even we all gave our wishes .It was a beautiful ,joyous and well organized Christmas celebration.

Learning outcome

- Christmas teaches us that giving is more rewarding than receiving.
- The festival teaches us that while it brings us immense joy when receiving something, we should be more excited to give back in return.
- Stimulates children's imagination and their communication, interaction and sharing is a natural outcome.
- It teaches the values that are integral to the festival.
