

ROYAL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND RESEARCH FOR WOMEN

Report on Oath Taking to mark the Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

Date: 31st October 2022

Venue: Multipurpose Hall

OBJECTIVES:

1. To pay tribute to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel for his role in India's freedom struggle and his efforts in building a united independent India.
2. To create awareness among students about the significance of unity, integrity, and security of the nation.
3. To promote the spirit of national integration and communal harmony among the students.
4. To inspire the younger generation to follow the principles and values of Sardar Patel and contribute to the nation-building process.

REPORT:

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel was one of the most prominent leaders of India's freedom struggle and played a crucial role in integrating the princely states into a united, independent nation. Every year on October 31st, India celebrates his birth anniversary as National Unity Day. Thus to celebrate this personality, Royal College of Education and Research for women conducted a special assembly which included a paper reading related to his contribution in uniting the nation along with motivational video. It helped in increased awareness of India's history and freedom struggle, understanding of the importance of unity and integration, promotion of communal harmony and national integration, encouragement of civic engagement and nation-building, and fostering of leadership qualities in students.

Later the special assembly was concluded with an oath taking to promote unity, integrity and harmony of India. It is important to make future generations aware of such freedom fighters and their contribution.

LEARNING OUTCOME:

1. Increased awareness of India's history and freedom struggle
2. Understanding the importance of unity and integration for national development
3. Promotion of communal harmony and national integration
4. Fostering of leadership qualities in individuals
