REFLECTION:

The F.Y.B.Ed Student Council organized a Christmas celebration with the help of our mentor and students. The backdrop was created by F.YB.Ed students, Ms. Manisha Vishwakarma and Ms. Amanda Chettair hosted the event. The Christmas celebration at our B.Ed college was meticulously organized, featuring skits depicting the birth of Jesus, soulful songs performed by the choir, and captivating dance performances by the F.Y B.Ed students. Additionally, the E.C.C.D students delighted the audience with their skit portraying Santa's workshop, while the S.Y students added to the festive cheer with their joyful performance. The event exuded a sense of joy and camaraderie, showcasing the spirit of happiness that prevailed throughout. To conclude the festivities, our Principal Dr. Judy Grace Andrews graciously distributed gifts through teachers to both students and staff, culminating the celebration on a heart-warming note.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

At the end of the event students learn to collaborate with others for planning and execution of the event. Students acquire knowledge and understanding related to Christmas through inquiry based learning.

FEEDBACK OF THE STUDENTS:

Riya: The programs is important for us to know and understand the different culture
