REFLECTION:

Royal College of Education and research for Women organises special assembly on 19th January 2024 on the occasion of Marak Sankranti. The program starts with prayer song and welcome speech followed by paper reading on Marak Sankranti as a seasonal festival and who it is celebrated in various states in India. The program includes folk songs and dances by S.Y and F.Y students.

Celebration of Makar Sankranti, consider the joy and togetherness during festive activities like kite flying and special meals in different states. It teaches the cultural significance and how participating in traditions fosters a sense of community. It reflects symbolism of the sun's transition which brings a deeper appreciation for nature and the changing seasons.

Overall, the celebration offers a meaningful way to connect with traditions, share joy, and appreciate the cultural richness embedded in Makar Sankranti. Makar Sankranti holds cultural and social importance, bringing people together to celebrate nature, traditions, and the positive energy associated with the sun's movement.
