REFLECTION:

The S.YB.Ed Student Council organized a talent hunt program for F.YB.Ed students, allowing them to showcase their talents and creativity. The backdrop was created by F.YB.Ed students, Vedika Aer and Maria Baig hosted the event. Various talents such as art and craft, mehendi, dancing, singing, sketching, drawing, and cooking were showcased. Dr. Judy Grace Andrew the principal addressed the class and the event concluded with the national anthem.. Talent hunt events in college often have various learning outcomes, such as fostering creativity, honing skills, boosting confidence, promoting teamwork, enhancing presentation abilities, encouraging leadership qualities, and providing opportunities for networking and personal growth. These events also often encourage students to explore their interests and passions while gaining valuable experience in their chosen fields.

OUTCOME:

Students develop the confidence by getting a chance to come forth and showcase their talent in various areas. Faculty come to know about the hidden talent and provide feedback and try to polish it by organising co-curricular activities and send students for various inter-college competition.
