Report on Women's Day Celebration (2024-25)

Name of the event: Women's Day Celebration

Date and Time: 08.03.2025

Venue: Multipurpose Hall

No. of Participants: 28

Coordinators: Prof. Ms. Mandrita Mitra

Objectives:

The Women's Day celebration aimed to:

1. Empower women and make them aware of their worth.
2. Celebrate the achievements and contributions of women in various fields.
3. Encourage confidence and self-belief among women.
4. Promote gender equality and inclusivity.
5. Inspire women to take leadership roles and break societal barriers.

Reflection:

On 8th March, Royal College of Education and Research for Women celebrated Women's Day with great enthusiasm. The event was dedicated to empowering women and reminding them that they are worthy of everything they dream of achieving.

The event began with an insightful paper reading, which provided deep knowledge and inspiration. This was followed by a beautiful poem by Henrietta, which touched the hearts of everyone present. Our principal ma'am also recited a wonderful poem, adding more beauty to the celebration. The highlight of the event was the empowering women's ramp walk, where participants confidently walked the stage, symbolizing strength and self-assurance.

The program concluded with the principal's address, which was both motivating and encouraging. The entire event was a great experience, leaving us all with a strong sense of empowerment and appreciation for womanhood.

Learning outcome:

By participating in the Women's Day celebration, students:

1. Understood the significance of gender equality and women's empowerment.
2. Developed a sense of self-worth and confidence.
3. Learned about the struggles and achievements of women in different fields.
4. Improved their communication and presentation skills through active participation.
5. Experienced a sense of unity and support among women.

Feedback:

Neomi Marti: The event was truly inspiring. The paper reading gave me new insights about women's empowerment, and the ramp walk was a powerful representation of confidence.

Grace Dongarkar: I loved the poetry session. Both Henrietta's and the Principal's poems were beautifully written and made us feel proud of being women.

Sakshi Sonawane: This was one of the best events I have attended. It reminded me that we, as women, are strong and capable of achieving anything.
