REPORT :

Teacher's day is celebrated on 5th September each year on the occasion of birth of Dr. SarvepalliRadhakrishnan who was known as an amazing teacher of his time and also was India's former president. The F.Y.B.Ed students of Royal College of Education and Research for Women of academic year 2021-23 celebrated Teacher's Day on 5th September 2022. All students and Professor were asked to report at Multipurpose Room at 11:00 am. The room was artistically decorated by the students. Creative invites were prepared by the students for the managing trustee Prof. Afros Madam and Founder Prof.A.ELakdawala. It was a memorable and cherishable function for both, the students and the teachers. The program commenced at 11:00 am with a warm and enthusiastic welcome by the anchors Ms. Sadaf Khan and Ms. KhushnumaSayed. The program was started by remembering God for which Ms. Ayesha Sayed and Ms.Saboora Siddique were invited for recitation of Surah Al Fatiah. The audience were welcomed by a charged Welcome speech given by the Class representative Ms.VaishnaviRathod who processed the felicitation of a dignified guest. The history behind the celebration and the significance of the teacher's day was shared by Ms. Amreennisa Khan through informative paper reading on Dr. SarvepalliRadhakrishnan. This was followed by a graceful dance performance by Ms.HarshitaVishwakarma dedicating to all the teachers. An affectionate Hindi poem was presented by Ms. SabahatBhati. The poem was led by a soulful singing performance by Ms. KhushnumaSayed. Ms. Anubhuti, Ms. Varsha and Ms. Kajal performed a heartfelt dance performance for the lovely teachers. The program was continued by a Heart touching poem for teachers from Ms. Pallavi Pathak. The joy and beauty of the program was double up by the mesmerizing dance performance by immensely talented dance group of the class. A teacher's job is to take a bunch of livewires and see that they are well grounded and the same was presented through a song by class singing along with choir group. Prof. Afros madam and founder Sir addressed the class by praising all the effort that were put in the program. Later Principal ma'am shed light on importance of teachers in molding the life of the individual. Last but not the least, games like memory game and Pictionary was organized for the teachers in which all the teachers and students enjoyed the game with full of zeal. Moving towards the end of the program Ms. Fatima Shaikh proposed the vote of thanks to everyone on behalf of the entire class which was followed by National Anthem . Lastly, a token of love and appreciation in the form of card and bouquet was presented to the Principal and the Professors. All in all it was an eventful day enjoyed equally by teachers and students alike.

OUTCOMES ACHIEVED:

- 1 .Students were made aware about the contributions of Dr. SarvepalliRadhekrishnan in the field of education
2. Students developed a sense of respect and value for the teachers
- 3 .Students expressed their gratitude towards teachers.
4. Spirit of being a lifelong learner was imbibed in the students.
