FIRST TERM TRAINING PROGRAM OF DLLE

The Department of Life Long Learning and Extension Work plays a crucial role in fostering lifelong learning opportunities and community engagement. Through its initiatives, individuals are empowered to acquire new skills, adapt to evolving challenges, and contribute to societal development. The department serves as a bridge between academic institutions and the broader community, promoting a culture of continuous learning and mutual collaboration. By facilitating outreach programs, workshops, and skill-building activities, it creates a positive impact on personal growth and community well-being. Reflection on its effectiveness often involves assessing the extent to which it meets the evolving needs of learners and contributes to the overall enhancement of knowledge and skills in society.

INVESTITURE CEREMONY

The Investiture Ceremony provided valuable insights into leadership dynamics and the importance of continuity. Learning from the experiences shared by senior leaders likely highlighted the significance of responsibility, effective communication, and teamwork. It culminates in multifaceted outcomes, notably facilitating the nuanced development of leadership skills among those appointed to key positions. Through the presentation of symbolic items such as badges or uniforms, the ceremony effectively reinforces a heightened sense of accountability by symbolizing the authority and responsibilities inherent in the designated roles. Beyond individual growth, the ceremony plays a pivotal role in shaping the overall organizational culture, fostering unity and instilling a collective sense of pride and commitment among its members.

TALENT HUNT

The students of F.Y. B.Ed of Royal College of Education and Research for Women Organized a talent hunt under the guidance of Council members. They have contributed to the talent hunt by showing their talents. Different types of talent have been shown by students like; Arts and crafts, Mehendi, Nail art, Dancing, Singing, Outfits, Sketching, Drawing, Makeup artist, Hand Stitching, Pamphlet Designing, Knitting, Cooking, and many more talents were seen in students. It was organized to boost the self-confidence in their skills which will be translated into studies to gain parallel academic excellence.

VRIKSHA VATIKA

Students were invited to take part in a tree planting event at General Hospital in "Jankalyan Nagar" on Monday, October 2. "Tree Plantation" was the first activity. They were instructed on how to water the saplings after planting them in a traditional Japanese manner. They wanted each kid to plant two to three samples, and in the end, they succeeded. Garbage Picking was there second task. Thirteen institutions were encouraged to help make India a cleaner place by implementing tiny changes. Volunteers devoted their time to cleaning and enhancing various locations by taking on tasks like trash removal and gardening. They expressed the sincere gratitude to Subhajt Sir for asking the kids to take part in this activity and for demonstrating the virtue of giving back.

SECOND TERM DLLE TRAINING

The students of “Royal College of Education and Research For Women” Organized a DLLE program 6th January 2023..Dr. Manisha Gawde was the guest lecture of the event .

GREEN CLUB

Throughout the session, students learnt about many water-hungry items, particularly cell phones. They learned about several ways to conserve water and spoke about how, as students can help. The lecturer gave an explanation of why water is getting harder to come by these days, particularly in India where groundwater is so important. The talk gave useful knowledge about how each of us can contribute to society and save water on a personal level. Our college is working with the Green Club to provide backing for a government program aimed at conserving water. They released an app that calculates water savings and educates us how to cut down on water waste with simple steps.

ANNUAL SPORTS DAY

Participating in sports day was really helpful and fun at the same time. The day started with March past which taught students how discipline should look like and team work teaches how we can achieve goal together. Some indoor games were organized to show the mind skills and outdoor games for physical skills some people who are not that good in sports also participated to develop their skills by looking at others they also got motivated.

CO - CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

GANDHI JAYANTI CELEBRATION

On October 7th, 2023, the Royal College of Education and Research for Women organized a "Gandhi Jayanti" program. The event began with a prayer and song, followed by a paper reading, song, and video presentations. Students from F.Y.B.Ed and S.Y.B.Ed performed street plays, highlighting Mahatma Gandhi's sacrifices for India.

FOUNDER'S DAY

The Founder's Day event, titled "Festivals of India," showcased the Kunbi Festival of Goa and Pongal, a culturally significant celebration. B.Ed. students enjoyed the diverse performances, showcasing the traditions, customs, and joy associated with these festivals, fostering cross-cultural understanding and appreciation for the country's diverse traditions.

NAV RATRI & DUSSEHRA CELEBRATION

The event on Navratri and Dussehra festivals emphasizes good over bad, promoting unity and spiritual connection. Praying, chanting, and offering prasada connects spirits and allows introspecting. Dussehra symbolizes truth, justice, and fighting against evil. Lord Rama's fight teaches patience, perseverance, and faith.

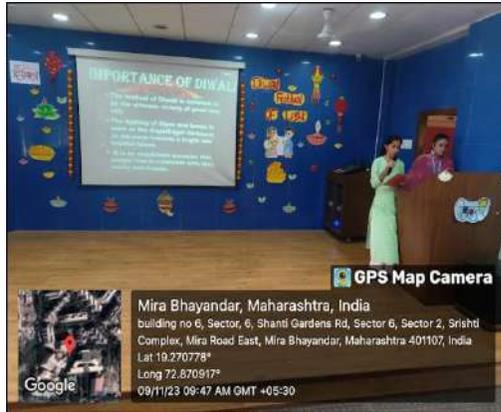

SHRAMDAAN

On November 8th, 2023, students from the B.Ed. Department at the Royal College of Education and Research for Women participated in a "Shramdaan" initiative to clean the 4th floor of the college. Different groups worked on specific tasks, including Corridors, Lift Areas, Library, Classrooms, and Art Room. The students' exemplary participation and commitment to cleanliness were noted in the report.

DIWALI CELEBRATION

The students gained a deeper appreciation for cultural diversity and community spirit through collaborative activities, developing teamwork and communication skills. They also learned about festivals' significance and their educational aspects, creating lasting memories of cultural inclusivity in school.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

The B.Ed college's Christmas celebration was well-organized, featuring skits, choir songs, and dance performances. The event was filled with joy and camaraderie, and the principal, Dr. Judy Grace Andrews, distributed gifts to students and staff, showcasing the spirit of happiness.

MAKAR SANKRANTI

Makar Sankranti is a celebration that brings joy and togetherness through activities like kite flying and special meals. It teaches cultural significance and fosters community through participating in traditions. The festival reflects the sun's transition, enhancing appreciation for nature and changing seasons. It holds cultural and social importance, bringing people together to celebrate nature and traditions.

WORKSHOPS

WORKSHOP CONDUCTED ON HEALTH AND HYGIENE

The health and hygiene workshop emphasized the importance of maintaining well-being, engaging participants in interactive sessions and discussions. It promoted awareness, empowered individuals to make informed decisions, and emphasized sustainability, fostering a sense of communal responsibility for health.

WORKSHOP ON “BRAILLE AND SIGN LANGUAGE”

The Braille and sign language workshop was a truly transforming experience. Learning about these communication modalities helped students to understand the issues that the visually impaired and deaf people confront. It underlined the value of diversity and urged people to campaign for accessibility in all parts of life. The practical demonstrations and interactive sessions improved the ability to communicate in new ways, leading to a broader respect for various kinds of communication.

WORKSHOP ON INCLUSIVE PRACTICES

On November 4th, 2023, Debbie Gerring, an advisor for school improvement UK, conducted an inclusive practices workshop that significantly impacted students' understanding of diversity, equity, and inclusion, highlighting their unconscious biases and providing practical strategies for promoting inclusivity.

INTERCOLLEGIATE WORKSHOP ON INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES

Ms. Ulla Sirivo Hattingen led a workshop on instructional strategies on 2nd December 2023, emphasizing the importance of aligning methods with diverse learning styles, adapting to student needs, and incorporating interactive elements.
