

MOSAIC

Issue VI Jan, 2025

IQAC NEWSLETTER
ROYAL HIGHER EDUCATION SOCIETY'S

ROYAL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND RESEARCH FOR WOMEN
Affiliated to University of Mumbai, Recognized by NCTE
Royal College Campus, Mira Road (E), Dist. Thane- 401 107.

CONTENT

1. Founders Day
2. Investiture Ceremony
3. DLLE First Orientation Program
4. Talent Hunt
5. Diwali Celebration
6. Workshop in CTET Examination
7. Workshop on Financial Literacy
8. Christmas Celebration
9. Visit to ICSE Board-Nirman Exhibition by NL. Dalmia High School
10. Pongal, Magh Bihu, Lohri and Makar Sankranti Celebration
11. RCERW Royal's Samavartana- I

ROYAL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND RESEARCH FOR WOMEN

Affiliated to University of Mumbai, Recognized by NCTE
Royal College Campus, Mira Road (E), Dist. Thane- 401 107.

Founder & Chairman
Prof. Asgar E.Lakdawala

Managing Trustee
Ms. Afroz Shattari

Principal
Prof. Dr. Judy Grace Andrews

VISION

To be recognized as a Minority Educational Institution par Excellence having secular outlook, imparting Value Based Education to the youth, to mold them into Disciplined, Conscientious Citizens of the society who would contribute to the Social, Economical and Cultural growth of the society

MISSION

- To provide holistic academic programs and an Inspiring learning environment
- To contribute to personal, professional and social Growth of girl students belonging to minority Community
- To extend its facilities to other communities Within the framework of the constitution of India

Editorial
Prerna Sawant
Librarian

FOUNDERS DAY CELEBRATION

On 12th October 2024, Royal College students celebrated the Founders' Day, honouring the institution's founders. The event included a blend of traditions, learning, entertainment, and educational activities, showcasing the creativity and dedication of the student body. The event began with a formal inauguration and featured cultural performances.

INVESTTURE CEREMONY

The Investiture Ceremony for the 2024 academic year was a formal induction of newly elected student council members. The ceremony was attended by principal Dr. Judy Grace Andrews and Assistant Professors. The oath-taking session was a highlight, where elected leaders pledged to uphold institution values and serve as role models. The principal congratulated the leaders and emphasized leadership, teamwork, and responsibility. The event concluded with a vote of thanks and the national anthem.

DLLE 1ST TERM TRAINING PROGRAM.

The DLLE first term orientation on October 7th, 2024, organized by the Alumni Cell of the Royal College of Education & Research for Women, provided insights and preparation strategies for B.Ed students. Led by Dr. Manisha Gawde Ma'am, the orientation highlighted lifelong learning principles, teaching methodologies, training tools, and community involvement. The event also highlighted challenges faced by students, emphasizing communication, leadership, and empathy.

TALENT HUNT

The College Talent Hunt was a successful event that showcased diverse student talents and increased confidence. The event was well-planned and executed, revealing hidden talents and fostering an environment of encouragement, talent sharing, and mutual respect. It also laid the groundwork for continued engagement in creative pursuits.

DIWALI CELEBRATION

Students and teachers were united in a spirit of pleasure and togetherness throughout the Diwali celebration, which was a lively and enlightening event.. In encouraging cooperation, leadership, and organizational abilities, it provided a venue for artistic expression through rangoli patterns, diya decorating, lantern making, toran making, and thali decoration. The celebration also provided an opportunity to reflect on the values of good over evil, light over darkness, and cultural diversity, making it not only a festive occasion but a meaningful learning experience that contributed to personal growth and strengthened community bonds.

WORKSHOP ON CTET EXAMINATION

For B.Ed. students, the Royal College of Education & Research for Women Alumni Cell's CTET Examination Workshop offered insightful advice and helpful study techniques. The class, which was led by alumna Ms. Afreen Sayed, focused on important subjects like environmental studies, languages, pedagogy, and child development. It also addressed the CTET format, syllabus breakdown, and study techniques. Ms. Sayed linked the National Education Policy objectives and job prospects in government schools to CTET certification, emphasizing instructional styles, time management, and stress-reduction strategies. In addition to highlighting the college's role in preparing future teachers, the program encouraged students to approach their teaching careers.

WORKSHOP ON FINANCIAL LITERACY

Ms. Neha Shroff delivered an extremely educational Financial Literacy Workshop hosted by the Royal College of Education and Research for Women's Guidance and Counselling Cell. They gained useful knowledge on personal financial management from the workshop. Important advice on prudent investing, saving, and budgeting was given by Ms. Shroff. She discussed how crucial it is to keep tabs on our spending, establish financial objectives, and make future plans. Highlights included learning about several investment possibilities and how to select them according to our risk tolerance and needs. Additionally, the seminar stressed the value of financial restraint and being aware of wasteful spending. Overall, the workshop was very engaging and helpful. It gives the knowledge and tools to handle our finances more effectively and plan for a secure future.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

Everyone came together in the spirit of love, generosity, and sharing during the festive and unforgettable Christmas celebration. The Secret Santa activity, which introduced a sense of mystery and excitement, was one of the event's highlights. As participants gave considerate presents without disclosing their names, a sense of surprise and joy was created, and it was great to witness the anticipation. A sense of cohesion and belonging was promoted by the group's efforts in decorating, planning events, and taking part in different activities. The joyous ambiance, replete with lights, music, and laughing, forged treasured memories and cemented ties among students. When we looked back on the celebration, it served as a reminder of the value of sharing happiness, thankfulness, and compassion, transforming it from a seasonal celebration.

VISIT TO ICSE BOARD-NIRMAN EXHIBITION BY NL DALMIA HIGH SCHOOL.

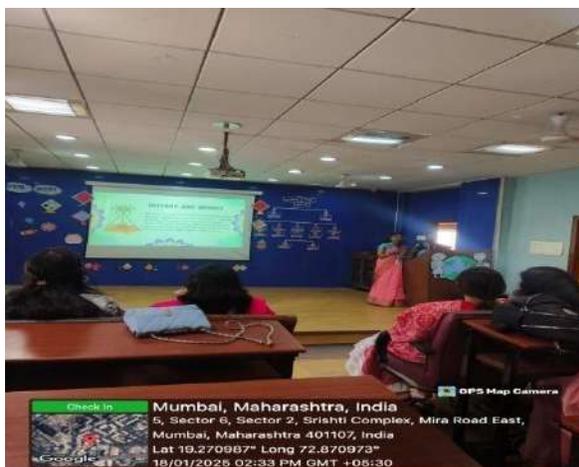

The NL Dalmia Exhibition was a successful event, showcasing student creativity and enthusiasm. Participants gained valuable experience in planning, executing, and presenting ideas, fostering community and collaboration. The exhibition reinforced experiential learning, providing a platform for skill enhancement and personal growth, inspiring innovation and commitment to learning.

PONGAL, MAGH BIHU, LOHRI AND MAKAR SANKRANTI CELEBRATION

The Royal College of Education and Research for Women celebrated Pongal, Magh Bihu, Lohri, and Makar Sankranti with a morning assembly, paper reading session, and dance performance. Students offered prayers and homage to nature, and the Principal emphasized the importance of embracing cultural heritage and fostering unity within the college community. The event was filled with enthusiasm and joy.

RCERW ROYAL'S SAMAVARTANA- I

The Samavartana Ceremony for the B.Ed course (2021-23) was a memorable event held in the multipurpose hall with esteemed dignitaries and special guest Dr. Sunayana Kadle. The program began with the ceremonial lamp lighting and a melodious song, setting a solemn yet celebratory tone. Guests were felicitated, followed by insightful speeches highlighting the institution's values. Dr. Kadle inspired the graduates with her address, and a student shared her transformative learning experiences. The distribution of certificates marked the culmination of the graduates' hard work. The ceremony concluded with the national song, and first-year students assisted with refreshments, fostering camaraderie.

