ENVIRONMENT DAY

The Royal College of Education and Research for Women celebrated World Environment Day 2025 with an online Tree Plantation Activity on the theme “Eco-friendly Action Begins at Home.” Students planted saplings, shared photographs, and pledged to adopt eco-friendly habits, fostering lifelong environmental consciousness.

INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY

Our college celebrated the International Day of Yoga with a special assembly that included a motivational yoga video and an insightful paper reading on its benefits. Students also participated in an online yoga session conducted by Saurabh Bothra, receiving participation certificates. Later, under the guidance of our yoga teacher, various yoga exercises were practiced with enthusiasm. The celebration inspired everyone to embrace yoga as a daily practice for physical fitness and mental well-being.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

The Royal College of Education celebrated the 79th Independence Day on 15th August 2025 with great zeal and patriotic spirit. The event began with flag hoisting, national anthem, and an impressive NCC march-past with vehicle convoy. Cultural performances, including skits, dances, songs, and a ramp walk with placards, reflected the theme One India, Empowered India. The celebration paid tribute to freedom fighters and inspired unity, responsibility, and progress.

GANESH CHATURTHI CELEBRATION

The Royal College of Education celebrated Ganesh Chaturthi on 30th August 2025 with devotion and enthusiasm. The programme featured a paper reading on eco-friendly celebrations, a skit on Lokmanya Tilak highlighting the cultural significance of Ganesh Utsav, along with vibrant dance and traditional Lezim performances. The event spread awareness on sustainable practices while reinforcing values of unity, devotion, and responsibility towards nature.

ONAM CELEBRATION

The Royal College of Education and Research for Women celebrated Onam on 13th September 2025 in the Multipurpose Hall with devotion and joy. The programme included Assembly, Prayer, a Paper Reading on the festival's significance, followed by a song, dance performance, and concluded with a Vote of Thanks and the National Anthem.

TEACHER'S DAY

The Royal College of Education and Research for Women, Mira Road, celebrated Teacher's Day on 6th September 2025 with great enthusiasm.

The event began with a Welcome Address, Prayer, and Paper Reading, followed by the felicitation of teachers. The cultural program featured games, a debate on technology and creativity, group singing, poetry recitation, and a video screening. The celebration concluded with the Principal's Address, Vote of Thanks, and the National Anthem, making the day memorable with a blend of respect, learning, and joy.

EID-E -MILAD

The Royal College of Education and Research for Women celebrated Eid-ul-Fitr with joy and inclusiveness in the presence of our Principal, Dr. Judy Grace Andrews, and faculty. The program highlighted the values of compassion, gratitude, and generosity through poetry, shayari, and cultural expressions. Students gained confidence by actively participating, while the event fostered respect for diversity, empathy, and cross-cultural understanding. The celebration created a joyful atmosphere of unity, pride, and belonging.
