

ROYAL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND RESEARCH FOR WOMEN

Report on annual fest- DLLE, Mumbai University- Udaan

Name of the Program: Streetplay

Time: 10:00 am

Date: 9th February, 2026

Venue: Kandivali Education Society's BK Shroff College of Arts and MH Shroff College of Commerce (Autonomous)

Objectives:

- To encourage creativity, teamwork, and stage confidence among students.
- To provide a platform for students to express social themes through dramatization.
- To develop communication skills and enhance learning through performing arts.

Reflection:

The F.Y.B.Ed. students of Royal College of Education and Research for Women participated in the Annual fest of the DLLE Department of Mumbai University- Udaan organised at the Kandivali Education Society's BK Shroff College of Arts and MH Shroff College of Commerce (Autonomous), Kandivali West. It was an intercollegiate event with the participation of 24 colleges of the zone. The students of F.Y.B.Ed. actively participated in the competitions like Streetplay, Poster-making, Creative Writing and Elocution competition and showcased their talent, creativity, and teamwork through their performance.

The event provided a wonderful opportunity for students to build confidence and improve their communication and acting skills. The streetplay 'Pehchaan', presented on the thought-provoking theme of transgender garnered great applause and appreciation from the audience and judges alike and also secured the 1st Consolation Prize, which made the event memorable and motivating for all the participants. It encouraged students to participate in more such co-curricular activities in the future.

Student Reflections:Shaikh Warda Akbar (F.Y.B.Ed.)

Participating in the skit competition was a great learning experience for us. It helped us improve our confidence, teamwork, and stage performance. Winning the 1st Consolation Prize made us feel proud and motivated to take part in more activities like this.

Aratreka Dutta (F.Y.B.Ed.)

The event was a very new experience for all of us. The hard work behind all the practice and effort of the students was very serious. The other students which also performed were also commendable. Overall, the event was a good stage given to us to showcase and discover our hidden and never seen talents.

Learning Outcomes:

- Students improved their confidence and stage presentation skills.
- Students learned the importance of teamwork and coordination.
- Students developed creativity and communication skills through dramatization.

Conclusion: The participation of F.Y.B.Ed. students in the DLLE Udaan Annual Fest was a valuable and enriching experience that helped them enhance their confidence, creativity, and teamwork. Through various competitions, especially the street play "Pehchaan," students effectively expressed a meaningful social theme and showcased their talents. Winning the 1st Consolation Prize further motivated them and made the event memorable. Overall, the event provided a wonderful platform for students to develop their communication and performance skills while encouraging active participation in co-curricular activities.

Coordinators:Asst. Prof. Ms. Shaista Shaikh*Asst. Prof. Dr. Jasvanti Adhangale*Dr. Judy Grace Andrews*Principal

Glimpses of the event :

