Reflection:

The Royal College of Education and Research for Women organised SAMAVARTANA-the degree awarding ceremony for B.Ed. and E.C.C.Ed Academic Batch 2022-2024 on 26th July 2025 in the multipurpose hall.

The ceremony was graced by honourable Chief guest Dr. Sybil Thomas, Guest of honour Founder and Chairman Sir Professor A.E Lakdawala and trustees of the management. The ceremony started with convocation procession of the Academic Batch 2022-2024 lead by chief guest and guest of honour and witnessed by the parents of the alumini. The ceremony was officially opened with the welcome address by Ms.Manpreet Kaur,IQAC Co-ordinator. The blessings of almighty were sought through prayer followed by University anthem. The Chief guest, Guest of honour and managing trustees lighted the lamp symbolizes the light of knowledge and values.The gathering was addressed by the Principal, Dr.Judy Grace Andrews who congratulated the graduating students and motivated them to keep learning and bring positive changes in the lives of young students in the society. The Chief guest was felicitated with a bouquet of hand made flowers and flower pot in line with the green initiatives of the institution. The convocational address of chief guest inspired graduands to live up to the expectations of noble profession of teaching. The student council and representatives of B.Ed. and E.C.C.Ed. Academic Batch 2022-2024 took the convocational oath by lighting the candles from lamp lightened by the guests. It was followed by motivational song for teachers ‘HumShishak hei’. Founder chairmen said as teachers we must be the change agents of the society. The graduating students shared the reflection of their journey. The graduands expressed their honour and privileged to be associated with the institution. The event was filled with pride, inspiration, and joy as alumni were honored with their degrees. The dignitaries’ speeches were not only motivational but also served as a guiding light for students. The ceremony ended with vote of thanks by Ms.Mandrita Mitra,CDC Incharge followed by national anthem and group photograph. The gathering enjoyed delicious food provided by the institution(RCERW) to all. The atmosphere was filled with a sense of accomplishment and emotional farewell, highlighting the strong bond between students and the institution.
