2. To encourage democratic values, accountability, and participation in college activities.
3. To motivate newly elected leaders to perform their duties with dedication, honesty, and commitment.

Reflection:

The Royal College of Education and Research for Women organized the Investiture Ceremony for the academic year 2025–26 on 15th November 2025. The event began with a formal welcome, and a brief introduction about the solemn event, roles and responsibilities of the Student council members. It was followed by the reflection shared by the S.Y.B.Ed. Student Council members of 2024-2026.

The event continued with an inspiring address by the Principal, Dr. Judy Grace Andrews, emphasizing the importance of student leadership and responsibility followed by the announcement and presentation of badges to the newly selected student leaders and a solemn candle-lighting ceremony. The atmosphere was filled with pride as each leader received their badge and took an oath to uphold the values of the institution.

The Principal, along with Asst. Prof. MandritaMitra and Asst. Prof. Shaista Shaikh, felicitated the council members and motivated them to carry out their duties with sincerity and integrity. After this, the members were selected for the posts such as Cultural Representative, Sports Incharge, DLLE Managers, PR and Tech incharges.

Conclusion:

The event highlighted the significance of leadership, teamwork, and discipline. The newly appointed students pledged to contribute positively to the college environment and support various academic, co-curricular, and extension activities throughout the year. Overall the ceremony instilled confidence, motivation and a strong sense of purpose in every member of the student council as they embarked on their journey of leadership.

Learning Outcomes

1. Developed Leadership Skills:

Students understood the responsibility and dignity associated with holding leadership positions.

2. Improved Teamwork and Coordination:

The ceremony encouraged collaboration among students across different committees and roles.

3. Enhanced Confidence and Public Speaking:

Leaders gained confidence through their participation in a formal ceremony.

4. Promoted Organizational Skills:

Students learned how leadership contributes to maintaining discipline, order, and effective functioning of the college.

5. Strengthened Sense of Responsibility:

The oath-taking ceremony reminded students of the values of honesty, respect, and dedication.

Feedback from Students:
