Objectives

- to Enhance Creative and Critical Thinking
- to Develop Communication and Presentation Skills
- to provide a platform to explore and find hidden talents
- to develop a sense of appreciation of each other's talents

Reflection

The Student Council of S.Y.B.Ed. Royal college of education and research for women organised a Talent Hunt for the students of F.Y.B.Ed . It was very much interesting to see each and every one eager to showcase their talents. The event was organised by the senior students in order to ensure the smooth running. The students organised tables in the Craft room with all the delicacies brought by them. Chaat items like Katoricha (Jain), followed by main course dishes like Pavbhaji, Chicken Biryani, Cake, Manchurian etc. Every student came on the stage roll no. Wise to present their respective talents. Varied talents like Stitching, Crochet work Poetry writing and also editing were discovered by the students.

The event was not only entertaining but also interactive. The audience was encouraged to reflect on their talents. The enthusiastic participation of everyone made the event more memorable and impactful.

Learning Outcomes

- To Develop Reflective Thinking- Students came to know themselves a little better.
- To Understand the Role of Co-Curricular Activities in Education- The importance of co-curricular activities in the curriculum was visibly seen by experiencing something new.
- To Prepare for Future Classroom Practices- The collective effort for the next events and the planning would be smoother with everyone and their virtues.

Reflection from students: -

Aratreka (F.Y.B.Ed.) – I really think that this was the much-needed event for us to know each other a little better. It was very captivating to see that everyone participated whole heartedly in the event.

Pragati (F.Y.B.Ed.)–I felt proud to present my work and gained more confidence in my abilities. This event taught me the value of practice, patience, and enjoying the process of creating something with my own hands.

Coordinators:
